

the purchase of exhibition showcases. These showcases will be placed in the Art Room or Weaving Room until the day when Black Mountain College builds its own museum.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE FACULTY

The annual meeting of the faculty of the Corporation of Black Mountain College was held on Tuesday, October 1. Theodore Dreier was elected Rector of the College for the year 1946-47. At the same meeting Theodore Rondthaler was elected to the Board of Fellows for a three year term; Albert William Levi, Edward E. Lowinsky, and John L. Wallen, for one year terms.

At a subsequent meeting of the Board of Fellows, Albert William Levi was elected Secretary and Theodore Rondthaler Treasurer of the Corporation.

STUDENT OFFICERS AND COMMITTEES

Officers chosen by the student body to serve for the first semester are: Moderator, Henry Bergman, Beaver Dam, Wisconsin; Olavi Sihvonen, Voluntown, Connecticut; Harry Weitzer, Jr., St. Louis, Missouri; and Jose Yglesias, Tampa, Florida.

Larry Fox, New York City, and Mrs. David H. Corkran were elected to fill vacancies on the Admissions Committee. Other members are Herbert A. Miller, registrar, M. C. Richards, Mary Gregory, John Urbain, Detroit, Michigan, and Lucy Swift, New York City.

Francis Foster, Detroit Lakes, Michigan, was elected by the faculty to represent the student body on the Senior Division Examinations Committee.

Henry Adams, Lenoir, North Carolina, and John Urbain were elected by the faculty to represent the student body on the Academic Publicity Committee. Other members are David H. Corkran, Alice K. Rondthaler, and M. C. Richards.

GRADUATIONS

In June 1946 the faculty graduated William McLaughlin, of Easton, Pennsylvania, in the field of American History. His examiner was Clarence D. Stevens, Professor of Sociology at Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio.

In September 1946 the faculty graduated Miss Beate Gropius, of Lincoln, Massachusetts, in the field of Art. Her examiner was Thomas M. Folds, Professor of Art and Head of the Fine Arts Department, Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois.

DEMOCRACY AT WORK AT HOME

Last month ten members of the Black Mountain College community attended the Southern Negro Youth Congress, held for three days in Columbia, S. C. Our delegation, an enthusiastic iota of the total 1200, returned with a fortified sense of personal commitment to the aims of the organization, which they communicated to us all.

Consequences in action have already been felt on our campus. The college's bi-racial program has been ex-